- Pre-entered exhibits will be received and considered paid in full. Entry tags will be printed and available for all exhibitors who have pre-entered when they arrive to check in Living Arts Open Class Exhibits.
- In order to speed up exhibit entry at the fair, please complete the temporary exhibit card for your exhibit prior to arriving at the fair. This form is on page 27 and may be copied. It is also online at ArapahoeCounty.Fairentry.com under Open Class. This will speed up the entry process.

- Entries will not be accepted after 10 a.m., July 26. No exceptions.
- Superintendents can assist exhibitors in determining the correct class for an item, however, it is ultimately the exhibitor's responsibility to enter their exhibits in the correct class

EXHIBIT JUDGING:

- Living Arts judging will begin at 1 p.m., Tuesday, July 26, 2016. Judging is open to the public.
- Judges' comments are informative and educational.
- Visiting with judges, officials and volunteers during judging is not allowed.

EXHIBIT RELEASE:

- All exhibits must remain on display until release time at 6 p.m., Sunday, July 31, 2016. Exhibitors will receive a release ticket granting them limited access to the Fairgrounds to pick up their entry.
- Food exhibits not picked up by 7 p.m. will be disposed of by the Fair management.
- If you cannot pick up your exhibits on Sunday, July 31, 2016, please make arrangements to have someone pick them up for you. Fair staff and volunteers are not responsible for exhibits not picked up.
- Exhibits not picked up will be kept at the Fairgrounds for one week after the fair, and then taken to the Extension Office unless other arrangements have been made.

AWARDS:

1. The American Placing System is used in Open Class (judges choose one first, one second and one third in each class).
2. However, the judges reserve the option to withhold ribbons and awards in a class where there is no deserving entry. The decision of the judges is final.
3. Classes may be combined, divided, exhibits moved to the appropriate class, or not entered at the discretion of the superintendents and/or the judge in all Divisions.

4. In classes with only one entry, the award will be based on merit.
5. Cash premiums for the top three ranked exhibitors in all Open Class classes are:

1st	$3	Blue Ribbon
2nd	$2	Red Ribbon
3rd	$1	White Ribbon
6. Overall Sweepstakes Ribbons: There will be one Junior and one Senior Overall Sweepstakes ribbon. This award is based on the combined number of blue ribbons received by an exhibitor in Culinary Arts, Visual Arts, Fiber Arts and Creative Skilled Arts. Additional ribbons will be calculated to break any ties.
7. Overall Judge's Choice Ribbons: There will be one Overall Junior and one Overall Senior Judge's Choice Award in each of the divisions listed: Photography, Fine Arts, Baked Goods, Food Preservation, Creative Skilled Arts, Quilts and all Other Fiber Arts combined. This award is based on the best Junior and best Senior blue ribbon entry in each of the areas listed above and will be chosen by the judges.
8. People's Choice Ribbons: Only one Senior and one Junior People's Choice Ribbon award will be given in Open Class Living Arts. Voting will begin Thursday, July 28 and end Saturday, July 30. These awards will be posted on Sunday, July 31, 2016.
9. Premium payments will be mailed to all exhibitors receiving blue, red or white ribbons.
10. Premium checks must be cashed by December 31, 2016 and will not be re-issued if not cashed by that date.

PROTESTS:

1. The decision of the judge is not eligible for protest.
2. Under no circumstances shall any superintendent or Fair official be treated disrespectfully. If any question arises concerning the decision of a superintendent, such protest shall be brought to the attention of the Fair Planning Committee.

- CLASS 68 SR: Gluten-Free Bread

PRODUCT STANDARDS FOR BAKED GOODS

Yeast Bread should have a uniform golden crust, a smooth, well-rounded top, slice easily, and hold shape. Texture should be moderately fine, even grained, free from large air bubbles and well-baked. The flavor should be pleasant, with a bland nut-like taste.

Quick Bread should be even or slightly rounded, golden brown crust, equally light throughout. Texture should have a fine even grain, not crumbly. Flavor should be characteristic of ingredients. Any nuts or fruits should be uniformly distributed.

Coffee Cakes should be well-baked and browned, not doughy, crumbly, or drippy. If dough swirls, it should have a clean cut design. Icing should enhance appearance. Flavor of topping should complement or be pleasant contrast to flavor of dough.

Cakes should have a neat appearance. Texture should be consistent with recipe and ingredients used with flavor well-blended and pleasant to the taste.

The judge will consider Baked entries on a basis of:

- a. General Appearance
- b. Color
- c. Crust or Outer Covering
- d. Shape and Volume
- e. Texture
- f. Crumb (moist or dry)
- g. Consistency

COOKIES

COOKIE TYPES DEFINED

Drop Cookies – Dough is dropped by teaspoon onto cookie sheet, not flattened.

Molded Cookies – Dough is rolled into balls or thin pencil-shaped rolls between hands. Some cookies are then flattened with the bottom of a glass, or crisscrossed with the tines of a fork, or pressed down with a thumb, or pressed into a cookie mold for shaping, or stamped.

Refrigerator Cookies – Dough is molded into rolls, wrapped, chilled thoroughly in the refrigerator, and then cut into thin slices for baking.

Rolled Cookies – Dough is chilled, rolled out on a board and then cut into desired shapes with cutters or pattern, i.e. Springerle.

Pressed Cookies – Dough is forced through a cookie press into desired shapes. An example of a pressed cookie is Spritz.

Brownies – Moist dough is poured into a pan, baked, cooled and cut into bars.

Bar Cookies – Stiff dough is spread evenly into pan, baked, cooled and cut into bars or diamonds.

Exhibit Rules:

1. Exhibit to consist of four (4) cookies.

DIVISION B – FOOD PRESERVATION

Canned Foods will be judged on:

- a. Pack – Full, attractive, yet practical
- b. Liquid – Covers the top of fruits and vegetables; adequate head space.
- c. Color – Natural color, not faded or unnaturally light.
- d. Quality of product – Distinct, uniform pieces, well-prepared, firm.
- e. Appearance of container – Standard brand-name glass jar; clean; suitable; rings and lids with ring easily removable and clean under ring; clear, neat label.
- f. Technique – USDA approved safe methods, adjusted for altitude, approved pack, and having acidity for safety.
- g. Label – Name of product; style of pack; date canned; method/equipment used (dial or weighted gauge); processing time; altitude, pounds of pressure.
- h. Recipe – 3” x 5” card attached to jar by rubber band through hole punched in upper left hand corner of card. Recipe card is for judge’s use only.

- 8. Decorative storage containers/jars, which have a rubber seal, are not acceptable for canning exhibits.
- 9. No decorations on jars, i.e. lace or fabric on jar lid. Jars need to include rings and lids. Jars should be clean, dry and rings easily removed by judge.
- 10. Any jars showing leaks or spoilage will not be judged.
- 11. Use appropriate headspace as called for in recipe directions. Liquid should cover the solids in the jar.
- 12. Sticky or dusty jars and jars with signs of old labels will be quickly eliminated.
- 13. The judge may open and taste jars of jellies, jams, preserves, and/or pickles at their discretion.
- 14. Canned foods (vegetables and fruits) may be opened in determining the pressure seal quality of the product. Jars that are opened during judging will be marked by the judge and should not be eaten when the fair is over.

FOOD SAFETY GUIDELINES

Exhibit Rules:

- 1. Exhibitors may enter two items per class.
- 2. Recipes are required for canned and dried products and must include recipe source. Recipes MUST be put on 3” x 5” cards and be attached to the jar.

DEPARTMENT 3 – OPEN CLASS FIBER ARTS

DIVISION E – QUILTS

Exhibit Rules:

1. Exhibitors may enter two items per class.
2. Quilt Definition: Three layers (top, batting, and backing) held together by quilting stitches through all three layers. Usage, style or technique does not matter. Items that do not fit this definition, but are traditionally accepted as quilts include the yo-yo and cathedral window techniques.
3. Entries can be a kit, pattern or an original design done by an individual or group.
4. The use of pre-quilted purchased fabric is not considered quilting and will not be accepted as an exhibit for judging.
5. Entries must have been completed after August 1, 2014, and never have been previously entered at the Arapahoe County Fair.
6. Judging is based on the quality of the work and not the size of the quilt.
7. If a quilt has a permanent name (id) on the back, please cover the area with a piece of fabric attached with safety pins.
8. PLEASE NOTE: Please enter your quilt in the proper quilt class under the proper workmanship classification as a “one person quilt,” or a “duet quilt.. See the following Quilt Type Definitions for clarification.
9. The quilt sizes listed need to meet both size dimensions, not just one. Example: Smaller than 72” x 90” means item must be smaller both in width and length.

FIRST-TIME ENTRANT QUILT AWARD

Sponsored by Colorado Quilting Council

$25.00 Award & Special Ribbon

The Colorado Quilting council will provide a special ribbon and a $25.00 cash award to one quilt, chosen by the Colorado Quilting Council judge on the day of judging, whose maker has entered the quilting competition for the first time.

Please check the entry form if you are a first-time exhibitor in the Quilting Division at the Arapahoe County Fair.

QUILT TYPES DEFINED

- One Person Quilts: A quilt constructed and quilted by one person.
- Duet Quilts: A quilt constructed by one person and quilted by another person by hand or by machine.
- Hand Quilted: Quilts that are entirely hand quilted with no machine quilting at all.
- Machine Quilted: Quilts that have any machine quilting. Machine quilted quilts may include some hand quilting.
- Pieced: At least 75 percent of the surface of the quilt top is pieced, by hand or machine.
- Appliquéd: At least 75 percent of the surface of the quilt top consists of appliquéd motifs applied either by hand or machine.
- Tie/Tacked Quilt: Three layers (top, batting, and backing) held together by ties, tacking, etc. through all three layers.
- Novelty Quilts: Bed covers that do not have any quilting stitches or traditional top techniques such as piecing and appliqué. Includes biscuit quilts, Cathedral Window, Ribbon Quilts, Crazy Quilts (if not quilted) and Yo-Yo quilts.
- Art Quilt: Wall quilts that are thematic or pictorial in design.

THE JUDGE WILL CONSIDER ALL ENTRIES ON A BASIS OF:

Workmanship:

- a. Piecing: Precise corner points; pattern matching; blending thread; lays smooth.
- b. Quilting: Even stitches; correct tension; smooth lines; consistent on front and back.
- c. Borders: Compliment quilt; proper construction; straight lines.
- d. Applique: Edges turned properly; smooth curves; not shadowing.
- e. Finishing: Betting to edge; straight outer edge; precise corners and mitering.
- f. Special Techniques: Enhance top and well secured; neat stitching.

Appearance and Design:

- a. Visual impact: Colors and fabric well chosen; pleasing, interesting; unity of style and spacing.
- b. Quilting Patterns: Complement and enhance quilt design; sufficient quilting; patterns well placed.
- c. General Appearance: Clean, No pet hair; marking lines removed; threads clipped.

Judging is based on the quality of the work, not the size of the quilt.
